

Shalom Chaverim by Lisa Baydush

Shalom chaverim, shalom! (4x)

It's so nice to see you all my special friends,
I'm so glad that you're here today!
Are you ready to sing lots of songs with me?
If you are, let me hear you say...

Havdalah Hug adapted by Shira Kline and Lisa Baydush, based on Sesame Street's Family Hug

We're here with all our friends and our family,
My favorite stuffed animal is sitting here with me,
We're glad to be together on this Havdalah night,
So put your arms around a friend, and give a hug, squeeze tight! Oh...

Havdalah hug! Havdalah hug! Havdalah hug!
Havdalah hug really makes me feel loved! (2x)

Shubi Dubi by Gideon Koren, English verse by Lisa Baydush

Shubi dubi dubi (5x) dubity-a, Shubi dubi dubity-a

I have a little teddy bear; he's my best friend, Shubi,
He sleeps in my bed and wears pajamas; he is such a cutie!
I take him with me everywhere, he is always with me!
And when I sing songs he sings along:
Shubi dubi dubi dubi do, oh, oh, oh...

Goodnight by Laurie Berkner

I'm a little frog and my daddy loves me,
I'm a little frog and my mommy loves me,
and when they tuck me in to say goodnight,
they say, "Ribbit, ribbit, ribbit!" goodnight.

Goodnight, goodnight, goodnight, little frog, goodnight,
Goodnight, goodnight, "Ribbit, ribbit, ribbit!" goodnight!

Havdalah booklet designed by Lisa Baydush, 2009

Havdalah

Havdalah begins when three stars appear in the evening sky. The word Havdalah means to differentiate, to distinguish. The Havdalah ceremony marks the separation between the Sabbath day of rest, and the rest of the week. With Havdalah, we say goodbye to Shabbat, but we hope that the sweetness of the day will remain with us during the coming week.

Do Havdalah by Karen Daniel

Chorus:

We do Havdalah, Havdalah,
Saturday night we do Havdalah! (repeat)

You don't have to be a real good singer
to make every Shabbat linger,
We know on Friday night we eat challah,
Saturday night we do Havdalah... (chorus)

We raise a braided candle to the highest height,
See how God separates the darkness from the light,
See how Shabbat is something that we're gonna miss,
See how we put the candle out like this... (chorus)

Havdalah is When We Say Goodbye to Shabbat by Lisa Baydush

Havdalah is when we say goodbye to Shabbat (2x)
Shalom Shabbat, Shalo—m Shabbat (2x)

Havdalah is when we see the braided candle glow...
Havdalah is when we smell the spices oh so sweet...
Havdalah is when we say goodbye to Shabbat...

Bim Bom by Nachum Frankel

Bim— bom— bim, bim, bim, bom,
Bim bim bim bim bim bom (chiri biri biri) (repeat)

Birkat Havdalah by Debbie Friedman

Yai lai lai lai lai lai lai...

We make a blessing over the wine, a symbol of joy, to sanctify the moment, but we do not drink from it yet.

Baruch Atah Adonai eloheinu melech ha-olam
Borei p'ri hagafen (2x): Yai lai lai lai lai lai lai...

*The fragrant spices signify our hope for a week filled with sweetness.
We smell the spices and then pass the spice box around.*

Baruch Atah Adonai eloheinu melech ha-olam
Borei minei v'samin (2x): Yai lai lai lai lai lai lai...

The light of the candle expresses our hope for a week of brightness and joy. Hold your hands up towards the candle so that your fingernails catch the reflection of the light, and curl your fingers toward you to bring a little of that light into the coming week.

Baruch Atah Adonai eloheinu melech ha-olam
Borei m'o-rei ha-eish (2x): Yai lai lai lai lai lai lai...

After this blessing, we taste the wine, and then extinguish the candle by dipping it into the wine cup. Listen for the sizzle!

Baruch Atah Adonai eloheinu melech ha-olam
Hamavdil ben kodesh l'chol (2x): Yai lai lai lai lai lai lai...

*Shabbat has now ended.
We wish one another, "Shavua tov, a good week!"*
